SCHOOL REPORT.

The Board of Education herein present to you their report for the past year. It hardly seems necessary for us to make any remarks as the schools all speak for themselves. The parents and citizens of Brookline, deserve much credit for the interest they have manifested in the schools. We ask you now to be enthusiastic in refurnishing the North and West Primary houses and raising money enough to make repairs that are essential.

The children should be commended for their prompt attendance, and the Roll of Honor is indeed an honor to them.

Following is the Statistical Report.
